Valuable Programs and Events

We assist businesses in DeKalb County by hosting informative workshops and seminars, providing innovative programs, partnerships and business discounts. We also host a number of valuable networking and orientation events:

FIRST MONDAY LUNCH – This monthly event allows Chamber members and other representatives from the business community to hear from various business leaders and elected officials on current business trends and issues affecting the county and business in general.

BUSINESS AFTER-HOURS – This event offers business exchange and networking in a relaxed environment for Chamber members, business professionals, their business associates and clients.

NETWORK DEKALB LEADS GROUP – The leads group is a bi-weekly networking open to Chamber members and non-members looking to formulate business relationships through the exchange of business referrals.

HUMAN RESOURCE COUNCIL (HRC) – The HRC is a forum for HR managers and personnel management professionals to discuss various topics and issues related to personnel and staff development policies and procedures.

SMALL BUSINESS COUNCIL – This program is a series of seminars designed to address the various issues and obstacles faced by the small business owner on a daily basis.

NEW MEMBER ORIENTATION – An event where new members are allowed the opportunity to introduce themselves, learn more about the Chamber, its affiliated agencies, and meet other Chamber staff and Ambassadors.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS - The DeKalb Chamber through its governmental affairs committee looks to engage the business community in meaningful dialogue with local, state & federal staff and elected officials, to create better understanding of how various policies affect the business community.

EDUCATION - Through its education committee, the DeKalb Chamber looks to engage the business community in the affairs of the DeKalb County School System recognizing that today's students are tomorrow's workers and business leaders.
